February 2016 President's Message

HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

Hi Gang!

I am so sorry that January's club meeting was cancelled. Your Board felt your safety was much more important. We want all of you to stay dry, stay safe, so stay home!!

DUES: yes, Sharolyn & Suzie will be glad to take your money or checks for this year's membership. Remember it's $24.00 for one & $48.00 for two.

The Big 3 is coming February 26, 27, & 28. This is a great event to buy & sell cars, parts, etc. and see old friends that you have not seen for a long time. Larry & I will be in spaces WC44 & 45. Curt & Marie Morrow will be on one side of us and Jay & Linda Scarbrough will be on the other. Come on by and say hi. We will have extra chairs & cold water for you.

February also marks the time for sign-ups for NSRA 2016 Fellow Pages. Remember you must be a member of NSRA to be included. If you want to join or sign-up please see me for more information.

Well January has come and gone and my '31 Dodge did not make it home yet. February seem to be a good month for that to happen. I am hoping to take her to Big Bear this year. REMEMBER...get out and drive-em!!!

VISTA BURGER RUN etc.

After rain all week – Friday all the preregistered participants received the email “The Vista Burger Run” is on. Great news and Saturday started out cold but became a beautiful day. Almost, but not quite 600 street rods and hot rods attended, the most ever attending in the past 29 years. I can see the full 600 next year on the 30th anniversary. This event has truly grown since the first time that Guy and I attended with less than a hundred cars and we all fit in the lower parking lot of Frosty Burger with room to spare. Joe Free does an outstanding job of everything for this first run of the year. Great parking (even with all the construction in downtown Vista) for all, the best homemade trophies in town, dash plaques, and don’t forget the Tee Shirt with Hilton Vail’s beautiful truck on it. Where else can you get such a bargain for $10.00????? Besides all of that - we all get to see all those beautiful cars and all the old friends that go with them. Was good to see so many from Over the Hill Gang San Diego there.

Everett, Denise Hume, Guy and I attended the new donut run on Sunday morning on the 24th of January. Was great to Maury Lowe there and catch up on some of the latest. Much less of a turnout than the Bonita Donuts on Saturdays, but maybe it just needs a chance to get on everyone’s calendars. The only drawback we could see was there are no restroom facilities close by.

This coming Saturday is the In’ N’ Out Burger run in Poway. This is a fun little run to go to. No charge to go and only last a couple of hours. They have a fun little raffle and then a 50/50 with half the money they take in on the raffle of the day. Usually give out 3 trophies that the workers pick which is interesting. Hope to see you there sometime.

Esther
